Professor: Patricia Kline Office hours by appointment: Office #856.225.6800

E-mail: pkline@camden.rutgers.edu

Course Objectives:

• To introduce the student to the art of communicating successfully in a team environment

- To provide the student with "hands-on" experience composing clear, concise, and meaningful business memoranda, letters, written reports, oral presentations, and other forms of business-related written/oral communications
- To provide you with opportunities for learning and practicing speaking and delivering presentations- with coaching and feedback in a public setting, as well as listening skills

Teaching "Style":

Instructor-facilitated class discussion wherein instructor borrows from personal work experience to lend credence and "give life" to selected textbook exercises and examples of business communications. Students are expected to contribute to these discussions by sharing information gained from assigned readings/exercises. Where appropriate, students are requested to bring copies of business-related communications to class (with prior approval as necessary) for purposes of class discussion.

Keep in mind that this class is not a passive learning experience. You will be actively involved in class-size discussions, work group activities, a team-generated research project, and an oral presentation to the class. Accordingly, you must prepare yourself for each session by reviewing/doing all assigned work before coming to class. Moreover, your attendance at each session is critical because you are an integral and vital part of your team. Accordingly, attendance will be taken and factored into your final grade computation.

On-Going Homework Assignment:

 MindTap assignments are to be completed and submitted on-line on or before the date(s) they are due. No late submissions will be accepted.

ADMINISTRATION

SYLLABUS UPDATES AND OTHER COURSE COMMUNICATION

All changes and announcements will be made in class at least once. If you anticipate being absent from class, find a classmate who can pick up handouts etc. for you, as you are responsible for keeping up with this course. All handouts are available in the SAKAI site for this course. There are no excuses for not having class material.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Policy found at http://academicintegrity.rutgers.edu/academic-integrity-at-rutgers

Students are responsible for understanding the principles of academic integrity and abiding by them in all aspects of their work at the University. Students are also encouraged to help educate fellow students about academic integrity and to bring all alleged violations of academic integrity they encounter to the attention of the appropriate authorities.

Principles of academic integrity require that every Rutgers University student:

- properly acknowledge and cite all use of the ideas, results, or words of others
- properly acknowledge all contributors to a given piece of work
- make sure that all work submitted as his or her own in a course or other academic activity is produced without the aid of unsanctioned materials or unsanctioned collaboration
- obtain all data or results by ethical means and report them accurately without suppressing any results inconsistent with his or her interpretation or conclusions
- treat all other students in an ethical manner, respecting their integrity and right to pursue their educational goals without interference. This requires that a student neither facilitate academic dishonesty by others nor obstruct their academic progress
- uphold the canons of the ethical or professional code of the profession for which he or she is preparing.

Adherence to these principles is necessary in order to insure that:

- everyone is given proper credit for his or her ideas, words, results, and other scholarly accomplishments
- all student work is fairly evaluated and no student has an inappropriate advantage over others
- the academic and ethical development of all students is fostered
- the reputation of the University for integrity in its teaching, research, and scholarship is maintained and enhanced.

Failure to uphold these principles of academic integrity threatens both the reputation of the University and the value of the degrees awarded to its students. Every member of the University community therefore bears a responsibility for ensuring that the highest standards of academic integrity are upheld.

If there are questions on how to comply, please contact me immediately.

STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT

Policy found at http://studentconduct.rutgers.edu/university-code-of-student-conduct

Violations of the Student Code of Conduct are considered serious infractions of student behavior and subject to penalties relative to the level of the matter. Students may not disturb normal classroom procedures by distracting or disruptive behavior. Examples of disruptive behavior include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Repeatedly leaving and entering the classroom without authorization
- Answering cellular phone or allowing pager to beep
- Making loud or distracting noises
- Repeatedly speaking without being recognized, interrupting the instructor or other students, or otherwise acting in disregard of the instructor's requests
- Resorting to physical threats or violence directed toward the instructor or other students.*

Violations of the code should be reported to the Dean of Students office deanofstu-dents@camden.rutgers.edu or 856-225-6050.

If the violation is immediate and a potential threat is a concern, call the Rutgers-Camden police at 856-225-6111

CELL PHONES:

Students are required to turn off their cell phones while they are in class, unless there is an emergency.

EXAM MAKE-UP POLICY

If, for a university approved reason, you cannot take an exam at the scheduled time you must give the professor written notice at least one week in advance so that other arrangements can be made. If the situation does not allow for advance notification (for example, emergency hospitalization), contact the professor as soon as possible after a missed exam. Make-up exams for non-university approved reasons are not guaranteed. The professor reserves the right to request written documentation to support your absence (such as a doctor's note, an obituary, or military orders).

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Rutgers University welcomes students with disabilities into all of the University's educational programs. In order to receive consideration for reasonable accommodations, a student with a disability must contact the appropriate disability services office at the campus where you are officially enrolled, participate in an intake interview, and provide documentation:

https://ods.rutgers.edu/students/documentation-guidelines.

If the documentation supports your request for reasonable accommodations, your campus's disability services office will provide you with a Letter of Accommodations. Please share this letter with your instructors and discuss the accommodations with them as early in your courses as possible. To begin this process, please complete the Registration form on the ODS web site at:
